

HOW MR. CHANDLER

WOULD HAVE FIXED IT.

He Sheds a Great Light on the Tariff Question.

CHINESE TREATY IN EXECUTIVE SESSION.

Quay Attempts a Trick, But is Caught By Harris.

Objection Made and Sustained to Quay's Serial Argument For Protection Being Read by the Clerk—Spring Fever Seen to Be Affecting the Senate—The Day in the House Taken Up With the River and Harbor Bill.

Washington, May 3.—Although it was evident a quorum was not present when the Senate met, no Republican made the point.

The House bill authorizing the wearing of a distinctive army and navy badge on public occasions was passed on motion of Mitchell, of Wisconsin.

Huntton asked unanimous consent for the consideration of a bill to remit the penalties on the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius.

Chandler objected. On motion of Morgan, in conformity with special order, the Senate went into executive session to consider the Chinese treaty.

The doors were re-opened at 12, and the tariff bill was taken up. Allison suggested the pending amendment to change the date when the bill shall go into effect from June 1 to June 30 be passed over.

Chandler is Caustic.

Mr. Chandler gave his idea of what the tariff bill should have been had Democrats been true to the Chicago platform, and characterized the bill in the present form as a long way removed from that declaration of principle.

In considering it, Mr. Chandler read, with sarcastic comment, the letter of Mr. Cleveland addressed to President Harrison, in which the senator, in the name of the Democratic club, enclosing a contribution.

Mr. Cleveland, he said, was willing to pay for the dissemination of his noble and lofty sentiments, and he hoped that the Democrats of the state taking counsel of their eminent leader, would finally put aside their scruples for protection to local, or perhaps personal interests, and make their bill conform to the Democratic platform.

When Mr. Chandler took his seat Mr. Quay, (Republican) of Pennsylvania, resumed the speech, which he has been delivering in serial form, the last two weeks.

At 2:30 Mr. Quay asked the clerk to read a portion of his speech.

Mr. Harris, who had been alertly watching, raised a point of order against the clerk reading a senator's speech.

Mr. Quay said he was somewhat fatigued and thought a short respite would relieve him. He had no desire to violate the rules.

Quay is Called.

Mr. Harris replied rather sharply that he was glad to afford Mr. Quay any relief in his power, but when the senator, in Pennsylvania insisted upon working a speech by day and by week he would have to insist he make it himself.

"Oh, very well," retorted Mr. Quay good humoredly, "I will proceed."

But there are more ways than one of obtaining a breathing spell in the Senate.

Mr. Mitchell, of Oregon, blandly suggested the absence of a quorum. The bells rang. The senators came into the chamber from the cloak rooms and the roll was called.

Forty-six senators responded. The senators were getting ready to return to their places when the speaker, on motion of Senator Quay moved to go into executive session.

Most of them halted at the doors and addressed to their names and Mr. Quay, of Alabama, stretched himself out on one of the sofas against the wall. When the roll was called, he answered without rising from his comatose position there.

"That won't do," said Senator Hunter, of Virginia, in a voice loud enough to be heard in the press gallery opposite. "Every senator who answers to his name in a recumbent position is subject to a fine of a basket of champagne."

Some senators smiled and nodded approval. Mr. Quay's motion was lost—32 to 12. The hour of 4 o'clock, the hour set for the Democratic caucus, having arrived, the Senate at 4:30, on motion of Mr. Harris, adjourned until tomorrow at 11 a. m.

QUIT IN THE HOUSE.

Great Many Speeches, but Little Progress Is Made.

Washington, May 3.—No business was transacted in the morning hour in the House.

The time of the House from 12:04 to 4 o'clock was taken up in the consideration of the river and harbor bill. Speeches were made by Messrs. Cannon (Republican), of Illinois; Weadock (Democrat), of Michigan; Ellis (Democrat), of New York; Hepburn (Republican), of Iowa; and Ray (Republican), of New York.

At 4 o'clock, Mr. Catchings sought to have general debate closed at 5 o'clock. Opposition was developed among the Republicans, when Mr. Catchings moved to close the debate in twenty minutes, and on this demand the previous question was ordered and the motion agreed to.

Debate was resumed, and Mr. Boatner (Democrat), of Louisiana, opposed the methods of improving Red river in Louisiana according to the present plan.

At 5:30 p. m. the House adjourned.

MARCHING ON APIA.

Body of Atua Warriors Create a Scare.

Auckland, N. Z., May 3.—Advices received here today from Samoa say a body of Atua warriors, who were marching on Apia, caused a great scare on April 22. As soon as the news reached the authorities a force of government troops was sent to intercept the advancing warriors. The government troops remained out all night, but the rebels were not found.

When these advices were forwarded from Samoa the situation was still uncertain and a renewal of the fight was feared. The negotiations of the foreign consuls of the natives of Atua and Apia are likely to prove fruitless, as several of the conditions on each side have already been broken. Numerous parties of Atua warriors recently started out to join the rebels of the Savaii allies of the government, but have not yet returned to their homes.

The British cruiser Carca arrived at Apia on April 21.

HOME RULE IS THE GOAL.

Salisbury's Address to a Unionist Meeting at Bowbridge.

London, May 3.—Lord Salisbury addressed a Unionist meeting at Bowbridge today. In the course of his speech he declared parliament was exclusively concerned with taking the political machinery to pieces, and he looked forward to a better prospect. Continuing, he said the house of lords must submit to the will of the nation, but it would have that will clearly ascertained. He would not allow a political legend to obscure or divert the minds of the people from the main issue—home rule.

Disputing, he concluded, would come like a thief in the night and they must be ready and prepared for it.

COMET IN CALIFORNIA.

Has Been Seen from There Every Night for a Week.

San Jose, Cal., May 3.—The Mercury has the following from Mount Hamilton:

Lick Observatory, May 3.—The bright comet which was recently discovered by G. B. A. Australis, has been observed here every evening this week. It is nearly circular, about twenty minutes of arc in diameter, and to the naked eye looks somewhat like a large star of the fifth magnitude. Wednesday evening the comet was at its greatest brilliancy, near right ascension 8 hours 10 minutes south, declination 20 degrees 30 minutes. It is moving northeast about 5 or 6 degrees a day and slowly growing fainter. Its scope, both visually and photographically, is found to resemble in every particular that of the bright comet of July, 1833. The comet is, therefore, composed almost wholly of incandescent carbons and nitrogen gases.

GREECE ROCKED BY AN EARTHQUAKE.

DESTRUCTION OF MANY INJURED BUILDINGS COMPLETED.

A Hundred Fresh Hot Springs Have Been Discovered—Two Men Perish by Poni Air, and a Woman Jumps into the Well—Big Fire at Omaha.

Athens, May 3.—There was another severe shock of earthquake last night. It lasted fifteen seconds and was felt in nearly all of the districts which had previously suffered. The shock completed the destruction of many buildings, which had been damaged by former disturbances. There was no loss of life, as most of the people who previously occupied the houses were camping in the open country. There have been numerous curious results of the earthquakes.

In Adipsio fully a hundred fresh hot springs have been opened, the water coming from them ranging from 115 to 140 degrees Fahrenheit. A lake of lava, extending a distance of five kilometers from Larvina to the Cynon promontory, has appeared and numerous subsidences of portions of the coast have occurred.

A Russian man-of-war is conveying food and timber, the latter for use in the erection of places of shelter, to the affected districts.

At 2:30 Mr. Quay asked the clerk to read a portion of his speech.

HEATHENS' TIME

HAS NOW EXPIRED.

All Who Have Not Registered Must Be Deported.

ABOUT FORTY-EIGHT THOUSAND IN 'FRISCO.

Judge Morrow, of San Francisco, Decides a Point.

What a Chinaman, Claiming to Be a Merchant and Making Application for Entrance into the United States on the Ground That He Was Formerly Engaged in Business Here, Must Prove—Chinese of Other Cities.

San Francisco, May 3.—The period within which Chinese residents of the United States are required by law to register, in order to avoid deportation, expires at 12 o'clock tonight, and all Chinese coolies hereafter without proper certificates of residence will be liable to arrest.

The great mass of Chinese in the San Francisco district have complied with the law. The total number of registrations will be about 48,000, which is within 3,000 of the total Chinese population of the district. A large part of this 3,000 comes under the head of "exempt," being merchants or other than laborers, and will suffer no penalty, so that very few Chinese are left who have not complied with the law.

Collector Vinton has not mapped out his plan of campaign against these few, but will wait instructions from Washington. A further appropriation of $25,000 is necessary to cover deportation expenses.

QUAN GIN MUST GO.

A Heathen Who Had Not the Required Qualifications.

San Francisco, May 3.—Judge Morrow, of the United States court, in a decision this morning, defined what constitutes a Chinese merchant. Quan Gin, a Chinese, who claimed to be a merchant, had been engaged in buying and selling merchandise at a fixed place of business; that it was conducted in his name at least one year before his deportation; and that during that year he was engaged in no manual labor.

Quan Gin cannot answer these requirements and is ordered deported.

Chicago, May 3.—Today is the last day for the registration of the Chinese. After midnight any Chinaman found without a certificate may be arrested and deported. Up to date 1,695 Chinamen have registered. The first ones registered January 3, but they did not come in any numbers for six weeks afterwards. Since then they have been registering rapidly, sometimes running up to 300 a day. It is thought nearly all the Chinamen in Chicago will have been registered by tonight.

Came to Taw in Oregon.

Portland, Oregon, May 3.—Returns made to Collector of Revenue Black, this afternoon, show the total number of Chinese registered in the district of Oregon, which includes Oregon, Washington and Alaska, to be 10,885. Final reports have not yet been received from all points. It is estimated that nearly all of the Chinese complied with the law. Of the number registered about 3,000 are in Washington and Alaska.

Protest Against the Treaty.

Washington, May 3.—Samuel Gompers and James Duncan, president and secretary of the National Federation of Labor, and Furness of the legislative committee of the National Seaman's union, called at the capitol today and met a number of the senators, to whom they made protests against the ratification of the Chinese treaty. The delegates expressed the opinion that they had made considerable progress.

In This District.

Helena, Mont., May 3.—Chinese registration closed today under the act of Geary act. Reports up to close of business show that in this district, composed of Idaho, Utah and Montana, 4,469 registered. It is estimated 200 of papers are on the way in mails. Total Chinese population of district is 5,000.

New York.

New York, May 3.—This was the last day of registration for the Chinese. Henceforth every Chinaman who is not registered is liable to be deported. In all, 3,560 have registered out of 5,000 in the district. Many of the Chinamen will be proceeded against for making false affidavits.

In Baltimore.

Baltimore, May 3.—The time in which Chinese laborers could obtain certificates of residence 'entitling them to remain in the United States expired today with a total in this revenue district of 495.

Boston's Chinese.

Boston, May 3.—Chinese registration closed today. About 2,100 have registered.

Bombastic Boast of an Anarchist on Trial.

"Yes, I am Guilty! I Wanted to Blow Up Some Capitalists and Bourgeois"—That Lone Highwayman Once More Gets in His Work on a California Stage Coach—Suicide of Examiner Hazen—Hold-Ups Secure Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars.

St. Paul, Minn., May 3.—A remarkable career has just come to a close by the death of David B. Jones, near Burr Oak, Lacrosse county, Wis. He was "wanted" in several parts of the state for bigamy and several other pieces of crookedness. At the age of 15 he fled from home to escape the consequences of some minor misdeeds, and two years later was sent to the reform school for forgery. When 21 he married and settled down to carpentering. He was soon in trouble and was forced to again flee to avoid arrest. In 1875 he found his way into Trempealeau county and went to work at his trade. He was also an Advent preacher of considerable ability and was soon married to a Miss Hardie, of Escabeau, Minn. He was a devoted husband and father, and in about six months, when he found that the sheriff was after him for leaving another wife in Winona, one at Fountain City, one at Sheboygan, and two or three in Illinois. He disappeared, and nothing was heard of him for fourteen years, when he was arrested with a band of counterfeiters in a small town, but made his escape, and afterwards passed through the various stages of burglar, highwayman, train robber and ordinary tramp, and managed to avoid arrest. He was on his way to visit Earlville in disguise when he died of pneumonia. He was married at least ten times, and each time under a new name.

Suicide of Examiner Hazen at Carson, Nevada.

Carson, Nevada, May 3.—M. E. Hazen, examiner in the United States department of justice, committed suicide last night by shooting himself in the right temple with a pistol at the Arlington hotel.

Despondency, arising from the death of his wife last January, appears to have been the chief cause for the suicide. Hazen left a note for publication, indicating that the deed had been premeditated for some time, but he hesitated to take the fatal step because of love for his son Harry.

Hazen was a native of Cleveland, N. Y., where he was born in 1850. According to his own statement, he leaves a moment of his family, consisting of a wife and three children, and through four states. The remains will be interred in Carson.

More Dynamite Deviltry.

Legs, May 3.—An explosion of dynamite occurred tonight at the residence of Dr. Renson, in the Rue de La Paix. The basement of the building was shattered and Dr. Renson and his wife were injured. The shock also broke windows in the vicinity. There is no doubt Dr. Renson is not connected with politics and so far as known has no enemies.

HER DEEP SEA TRIAL.

The Test of the Maribhead Apparently Satisfactory.

New York, May 3.—The new cruiser Maribhead has completed her final trip and her officers and crew are quite enthusiastic over her performance. This is known as the deep sea trial, in which all her qualities as a fighting ship and her sea-going powers are tested to the full.

She sailed out of the bay on Tuesday morning and reported to port Tuesday, passing quarantine before noon. Outside of her own crew, probably the most interested of all on board were the members of the government board of inspection, consisting of Commodore Thomas C. Silligree, Captain Philip H. Cooper, Commander Bradford, Naval Constructor Baxter, Chief Engineer Milligan and Lieutenant Commander S. H. Roeder. Their report will not be ready for some days.

Ensign Schofield, in conversation with Associated Press reporter gave the following account of the trial:
